Fireman Dies After Assisting at Blaze

After taking part in fighting the second serious fire to break out in Andover in three days, Harry W. Hayward, 103 Salem street, collapsed and died at the central fire station Saturday evening.

Hayward had answered an alarm at the Andover Steam Laundry building on Postoffice avenue, and had just returned to check the alarm signals and change into street clothes. He was a lineman for the Lawrence Gas and Electric company and electrician for the fire department, for which he was a call fireman.

Hayward was in the quarters of the American Legion, of which he was a member, when the alarm was sounded at about 8:45 p. m. Saturday evening, and went immediately to the scene of the fire and assisted there. Returning to the fire station, he collapsed while talking to E. Burke Thornton. Death was due to a heart ailment according to the report of the medical examiner.

A. W. Badger, proprietor of the laundry, estimates that damage of $1,500 was caused by the fire, which destroyed parts of the front of the building and of the roof. Only one bundle of laundry was lost in the blaze, believed started by a cigarette or match smoldering near the bag at the bottom of the laundry chute. It has been established that the fire began outside the bag, and that there was nothing inflammable in it. No one had been in the laundry building since late Saturday afternoon.

Lt. Philip W. Deady, state fire marshal, was in Andover Monday to investigate the blaze.

A. P. C. ACTIVITIES PLANNED

The A. P. C. sorority of the South church will meet next Thursday, November 18, at 8:00. Miss Louise Sherman will speak on the subject, "War-Time Vacation." Refreshments will be served.

Warning!

Schedules of many commuter trains have had to be changed due to wartime conditions. See the new timetable, ready at ticket offices on Friday, for changes effective

Northey Gets Air Medal and Cluster

Was On Fortress Sent Pilotless Over Germany

Staff Sgt. Elwood F. Northey, a former Andover resident and a graduate of Punchard high school, was recently awarded the air medal and oak leaf cluster for shooting down a German fighter plane and taking part in five bomber missions over Germany. He is to be awarded a second oak cluster shortly, as he has now completed ten such missions.

In a letter home, the former local boy passes off the medal award lightly, mentioning that he got the air medal "merely for doing what I was supposed to do."

The citation, however, reflects great credit on his services, stating that the medal is awarded "for meritorious achievement in the destruction of one enemy aircraft while serving as a crew member on a bomber mission over enemy-occupied Continental Europe. The courage, coolness and skill displayed by

Legion Memorial Services At Plaque And Cemetery

The American Legion will observe Armistice Day tomorrow with three observances, at the plaque in front of the town hall and at the Legion lot in Spring Grove cemetery tomorrow morning, and at the annual Legion banquet at 6:30 Thursday evening in the Legion rooms.

A special plaque bearing the names of Andover's dead in the current war will be dedicated at the town hall tomorrow morning at 10, and a wreath will be placed on it. Rev. Donald H. Savage will offer the prayer, and Selectman Roy E. Hardy will give the principal address.

A special service will also be held at Spring Grove cemetery, for which arrangements are being made by Chaplain Halbert W. Dow. The Auxiliary and the Sons of the Legion will join in placing a wreath on the Legion monument and in the usual memorial service.

The principal speaker at the banquet tomorrow evening will be Rev. E. Hartwell Daley of Lawrence, who has had a great deal of newspaper experience and now serves, in addition to his ministerial duties, as a radio news commentator. Mrs. Harold Wennik will accompany community singing, and an entertainment program will be given.

Friends of the Legion are invited to attend the banquet. Tickets may be obtained from any of the members.

GRID SEASON AT CLIMAX

Phillips Academy Favored In Traditional Contest At Exeter Saturday

Phillips academy, which has come up with one of its best football teams in years, will journey to Exeter Saturday for its traditional contest beginning at 3 p. m. A large contingent of the faithful among the students are expected to make the train trip to New Hampshire to witness the encounter.

By virtue of a five win and one loss record, and its better showing against common opponents, Andover is this year the favorite. Last year it won a 12-0 decision, while heavily favored, against an Exeter team which turned out far more impressive than expected.

Coach Steve Sorota has been rounding his charges into final shape this week, following their best showing of the season last Saturday against the Tufts Informals. He has not announced his starting lineup as yet, but has several veteran and able players to work with. Among them are Capt. Jim Hudner, one of the brothers who have taken a prominent part in P.A. athletics; Norm Sper, who came up from the J.V. to play a brilliant backfield role this season; Dunc Mauran, powerful fullback and leading scorer of this year's eleven; and Ed Meade, Joe Reisler, Tex Neale and Pete Roome, all capable and experienced linemen.

Andover's only loss this season, an early-season one, was to Tufts, which it defeated easily in a return encounter, 12-6, last Saturday.

State Guard Company Present At Service

An impressive military note was given to last Sunday morning's service at Christ church, which was attended in a body by the Andover State Guard company. The men entered the church in formation and sat in a section specially reserved for them.

Previously, group pictures had been taken of the company, several different shots being included, at the playstead.

The Legion has invited the company to participate in its observance of Armistice Day, and the Guard will furnish a firing squad, under the command of Lt. Kenneth S. Minard, for the ceremony. Any Guardsmen not working tomorrow are asked to assemble at Punchard high school at 9:45 a. m., wearing their green uniforms with combat packs, leggings, steel helmets and shotguns. The same uniform has been designated for Sunday's drill period.

Punchard Faces Formidable Opponent In Methuen Tomorrow Afternoon

Fresh from two straight victories, after going through a rather mediocre season, Punchard's light young eleven turns its guns on a fairly strong Methuen football team tomorrow afternoon at the Edward J. Neil Memorial playstead, Methuen, the kickoff being scheduled for 2:30.

Punchard played its best brand of ball in the current season last Saturday in whipping a formidable Tewksbury eleven, 21 to 0, and the previous Saturday it edged out Chelmsford, 7 to 6.

The team lost the opening game this season to a fast Concord eleven, then beat Holten high school at Danvers, and lost its next three games to Reading, Winchester and the Phillips J. V. Besides the Methuen contest, the traditional game with Johnson, at Grogan's field,

November Draft Group Goes To Boston Friday

This month's selective service quota will leave on an early morning train Friday for the Boston induction station, where they will receive physical examinations and be inducted into the armed services. The quota is a rather small one, and the proportion of Andover men in it is smaller than usual.

The men to be sent are: Roland A. Baril, Portland, Me.; Stanley Buturlia, No. Andover; George L. Carroll, No. Andover, volunteer; Daniel C. Ducker, No. Andover; Albert J. Goguen, 6 Topping road; Joseph Keith, 68 Essex street; Anthony C. Laurenza, No. Andover; Hans H. Marum, Methuen; Hugh McLay, Jr., 32 High street; Roger P. Raymond, 38-A Beacon street, volunteer; Ernest M. Richard, No. Andover, volunteer; Frederick J. Welch, Lawrence; Michael F. Yurkewic, No. Andover.

New classifications released this week by Local Board 3 are:

RED CROSS NEWS

A new class for nurse's aides will start soon at the Lawrence General Hospital. Any local women interested in joining are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Arthur Sweeney. Andover's quota is at least five women for each class. Probably both day and evening courses will be offered. Maj. Gen. Sherman Miles, head of the First Service Command, has endorsed strongly the drive to enroll more nurse's aides.

The Andover Red Cross is in need of a pair of kitchen scales, which any donor may leave in the chapter's new headquarters in the Shaw estate on Main street. If the donor is unable to deliver the scales, he may call 1496 to have them picked up.

Lunch Room Reopens After Damage Repair

The Andover Lunch opened again for business Saturday after being closed two days to repair damages caused by the fire which menaced it and the building next door two days previous. The Lunch is in full operation again after extensive cleaning up of the smoke and water damage caused by the fire.

Lt. Philip W. Deady, state fire marshal, stated after investigating the fire that it had probably started from oxidation of wood in a large partition separating the Lunch building from that next door. The overheated steam pipes causing the blaze lead from the basement of the adjoining store into the partition and thence into the Knights of Columbus rooms over the restaurant. There was no fire damage to the Lunch, since the fire followed the steam pipes in mushrooming up the partition and then bursting out to gut the K. of C. rooms above the restaurant.

Christ Church Supper

The fourth annual harvest supper will be held at the Christ church parish house next Tuesday evening at 6:45. The supper will again be served by the Canteen. Tickets may be procured at the church office or the Thrift shop. Members of the parish are urged to get them early, as no more than 150 can be served.

As soon as the tables can be cleared away after the supper, Harold Phinney will provide record music for square dancing as long as anybody attending is able to hold out.

L'Antigua To Lead Tyer Rubber Union

New officers for Local 137, U. R. W. A., of the Tyer Rubber company, were elected at its annual meeting at the Square and Compass club recently. Paul A. L'Antigua, a leader in the union for several years, is its new president; other officers are William Arsenault, vice-president; Mary Smith, secretary; John P. Cussen, treasurer; Stanley Smith, Donald MacCord, Edward Anderson, Francis Kennedy, Alfred Demars, Carmen Scalara and Alexander Auchterlonie, executive board; Mary O'Hagan, Lafayette Stickney and John Cussen, trustees.

Miss O'Hagan reported for the Christmas present committee, and mentioned that, with the cooperation of the company, over 150 presents have been sent to members of the local now in service.

Installation of the new officers will be held later this month at the Square and Compass club.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holt have sold their home on Haverhill street, and are now living with their daughter, Mrs. Everett Boutwell of High Plain road.

WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE

AT EASE!

He's worn three stripes before, but not in the Army—Dike Nicoll, former local police sergeant, is now, we hear, an Army sergeant in an automatic weapons battalion at Camp Stewart, Ga.

Walter Markey, Flc, is now at a SeaBee camp at Quoddy Village, Maine.

Howard Olds is with an anti-aircraft outfit down at Fort Eustis, Va., nowadays. John Olds, we hear, is somewhere overseas.

Harold Downs is out at Camp Stoneman, Calif.

A. C. Arthur Edmunds is training at Whiting Field, Fla.

Harold Eastwood, popular local mailman, left Friday for duty with the SeaBees. The Eastwoods are right in this war, as Harold has a brother, First Lt. Arthur Eastwood, in California with the AAF, and a nephew, Arthur Jr., with the SeaBees in Northern Ireland.

Included in Ballardvale's fine service record in this war are two Davis boys from Andover street. Leo Davis is serving at sea with the Navy, while Pvt. Frank Davis is stationed at the basic flying training school at Walnut Ridge, Ark.

Bill Marudzinski, a three-year veteran of the Marine Corps who enlisted at Lawrence in 1940, is now fighting overseas with a Marine special weapons group. Dan Marudzinski, another Marine, has the rating of corporal in the Marine air force at Cherry Point, No. Car.

Doug Dunbar, formerly of P.A.'s faculty, is now associated with the Navy V-12 program at Hobart college in Geneva, N. Y.

Les Barrett of 275 North Main street, Shawsheen, now a yeoman 1c in the Navy, is working in the Port Director's office in Portland, Maine.

George Ballantyne of Elm court, a native of Scotland, is now a staff sergeant in the medical corps, and is at the station hospital at Fort Knox, Ky.

To the ever-growing list of local SeaBees add the name of Fred Maxwell of Arundel street, a ship-fitter 2c at Fort Pierce, Fla.

Al Towne, S2c, is now aboard an aircraft carrier in Atlantic waters.

Charlie Meikle of 275 North Main street, Shawsheen, a SeaBee, is in the nation's capital for the present.

John Petrie, erstwhile Phillips teacher, is now serving as an ensign aboard a Coast Guard vessel out of New York.

Cpl. Milo Trafton, who used to live on Stevens street, is stationed now at the Army air base at Lincoln, Neb.

Bill Buchan, BM 1c, has returned to this country after three years in the Pacific. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor, on a battleship, at the time of the Jap attack, and his ship was one of those sunk... Bill is now at Miami, Fla., and, as he hasn't been for four years, his family is hoping he'll get a chance to come to Andover. However, bosun's mates are at a premium where he is, and he expects to go to sea again soon.

We don't know precisely where 1st Lt. Bill Cargill, pictured above, is now, but from where he is, he can see Mt. Vesuvius smoking all day and flaming all night — it's a really beautiful sight, he says. He writes his family, the William Cargills of 44 Stevens street, that he has a "swell home" now, a two-and-a-half-ton truck. The truck is fitted out with four bunks, electric lights and all the conveniences of home; Bill lives in it with three other officers.

Don McLauchlan of Shawsheen road is reported doing well in Navy preflight at Chapel Hill, No. Car.

Second Looie Dick Sullivan, son of the James J. Sullivans of 76 Haverhill street, is learning to fly the big Flying Fortresses at the Army air field in Roswell, N. M., where he's a student in the four-engine pilot transition school. He got his pilot wings recently on graduating from West Point.

Herbie Muller, one of Punchard's better quarterbacks in the past decade or so, has been assigned to the district Coast Guard office of the Seventh Naval District, at Miami, Florida.

Sgt. George Keith, formerly with a coast artillery barrage balloon outfit at San Diego, Calif., has been transferred to Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Congrats to Abbo Batchelder of Argilla road, whose wife has just received word of his promotion to chief petty officer. His present station is unknown.

Sgt. Kerr Sparks, ski troop instructor who has been in the Aleutians for some time and is now assigned to Camp Hale, Colo., is enjoying a 21-day furlough at his home on Lincoln street.

Fred Butler, Jr., son of County Commissioner and Mrs. Butler of 111 Main street, has completed about a third of his pilot training at Union City, Tenn., and will soon report to an Air Corps basic flying school at Newport, Ark., for intermediate training. Fred, formerly a student at P. A. and Vermont academy, received pre-flight training at the Army college training detachment in Buffalo, N. Y., after being accepted as a flying cadet at Maxwell Field.

GOLF PRO DECLARED DEAD

Missing in action since last June, John Shimkonis, former Andover Country club golf pro, has officially been declared dead by the Navy department, which has so notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Shimkonis of 114 Park street, Lawrence.

Shimkonis, 38, was a seaman first-class in the Navy, and is believed to have been a member of a gun crew on a tanker sunk off the Southern Atlantic coast. He had become interested in golf as a caddie, when a boy, and was a popular figure in golfing circles for many years. A brother, Sgt. Patrick E. Shimkonis, is in the Army, stationed in Louisiana.

Cpl. Chuck Bryant, son of the Charles A. Bryants of South Main street, has completed his training in the AAFTTC at Chanute Field, Ill. While in school there, he was in the instrument specialist course.

Pvt. Joe Bourdelais, recently with a signal company at Camp Gordon, Gawga, has been transferred to Camp Campbell, Ky.

Pvt. Jim Skea is with an anti-aircraft battalion at Camp Stewart, Ga., nowadays.

Higus Asoian, now a sergeant, has been assigned to a bombing squadron at Ardmore, Okla.

Pvt. Jimmy O'Hagan has landed in North Africa. Jimmy was formerly at Camp Meade, Md., and his brother Pete is still at Camp Robinson, Arkansas... Also overseas, we hear, is Pfc Barker Higgins, former B. P. W. employee, now connected with a medical battalion.

Eddie Lindholm of Chestnut street, now an Army aviation cadet, is training at Ellington Field, Tex.

Pvt. Al Groleau of Shawsheen is overseas with an anti-aircraft artillery outfit.

Out at Ohio university you'll find Bill Eastham, son of the James S. Easthams of 64 Bartlet street, now in a service unit in the Army's specialized training program reserve. ASTP reservists have a double job in keeping up to the academic standards set by the university as well as their army duties.

Bobby Burnham, former Andover Town team pitching ace, now a fireman 2c in the Navy, was home recently for his first furlough after four months of boot training. Bob is a great advertiser for the Navy, not, indeed, because George Selkirk of the N. Y. Yankees is his rifle range instructor, and Bob Burke, Washington pitcher in '38, is his athletic director; not because Bobby has won three out of three heavyweight boxing matches, or because he is a regular on the camp basketball team — no, he likes the Navy because it's the Navy.

Sarge Ray Keating is now with an infantry outfit at some APO routed through Nashville, Tenn.

Harold A. "Mickey" Walker, son of the Walter Walkers of 440 North Main street, has completed officer's training and been commissioned a second loole in the Marine Corps Reserve. He's a graduate of Bates college, where he rolled up an impressive athletic record.

Out at Carter's Corner, Emanuel Gaudette has constructed a metal plaque to replace the original service flag there. It will be used only during the winter; the flag itself, which the women of the Corner go together to make some months ago will fly in suitable weather.

Army Lieutenant Writes Poem on Armistice Day

Commemorating the 25th Armistice day, a young army lieutenant, a former Andover boy, has written a poem which calls to mind John McCrae's famous "In Flanders Fields" of another war. The young lieutenant is Theodore Leonard Dodge, Jr., son of Margaret Anderson and the late Theodore L. Dodge. He was born in Andover, and formerly resided at 16 High street. He graduated from Brown in 1941, and did Y.M.C.A. work before entering service.

ARMISTICE DAY

Today we heard the bugles blow Beside white crosses row on row Where lie in peaceful sleep our honored dead.

Short years ago they fought and died

To gain a peace; thrust wars aside To make the world more human and more kind.

They bore aloft the torch of peace Which, from their feeble dying hands,

We seized that we might bear it on But, trading words for noble deeds We watch its flame sink low and die.

Until today we're caught once more in war.

Again the young men, you and I, Take up the torch and hold it high We kindle anew the flame; the hope for Peace.

We know our fight has just begun But every battle fought and won Speeds on the day when wars shall cease.

Today our mourning bugles blow Beside new crosses row on row, Where our own comrades, these, honored Dead.

In this year's battles fought and bled.

They died that we who live might know

This time we must not fail our dead

Andover Placed 31st on Accident Prevention List

Accident statistics compiled by the Massachusetts Safety Council place Andover in 31st place in the 10,000 to 25,000 population group for the first nine months of 1943. Andover has an accident percentage rate of 250.34 per 100,000 population.

The report lists Andover as having had one fatality, 36 injuries and 21 collisions during the nine-month period. The one fatality was a Camp Andover soldier killed in an accident on the camp property, and strictly speaking, should not have been included in Andover statistics.

FINE DAIRY RECORD

A registered Holstein-Friesian cow in the dairy herd owned by John Bolten of Andover has recently completed a 365-day production record of 762 pounds of butterfat and 23,676 pounds of milk, the Holstein-Friesian Association of America announces. This is more than 4 times the production of the average dairy cow in the nation.

Testing of the cow, named Walk-up Ormsby Glory, was supervised by the Massachusetts State college in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian Association.

Punchard

North Andover, remains on the Punchard docket for November 20.

Last Saturday's 21 to 0 win over Tewksbury was the best showing Punchard has made against any opponent this season; the local eleven displayed plenty of punch and skill in scoring in all periods but the third. George Craig became the star of the game in intercepting a Tewksbury pass and galloping 60 yards to a touchdown. Al Johnson and Fred McCollum scored the other touchdowns, and McCollum and Murnane made the points after.

Coach Fred Reil announced yesterday that he will probably start the following against Methuen tomorrow: Fred Anderson, le; Durwood Moody, lt; Emanuel Gigis, lg; Bill Morgan, c; Al Johnson, rg; John McGrath, rt; Bill Monroe, re; George Craig, qb; Fred McCollum, lbh; George Collins, rhb; Bill West, fb.

Only one member of the starting lineup, George Craig, played at all last year; the only other veteran, Henry Babicki, is out for the season, having been seriously injured in an automobile accident last Thursday afternoon at High and Haverhill streets.

Two other Punchard boys may also be sidelined by injuries, Chester Jenkins, regular right end, and Bill West, who has been named, however, to answer the kickoff in the fullback slot.

Methuen will probably outweigh Punchard considerably, and the Methuen eleven is far better stocked with veteran players than Punchard is. It has lost only two games, to Johnson and Hudson.

Officials for the game, which starts at 2:30, have been announced by Faculty Manager William L. McDonald as follows: James Liston, referee; Raymond Kennedy, umpire; and Joseph Orpen, head linesman.

WITH THE BOYS IN SERVICE

AT EASE!

He's worn three stripes before, but not in the Army—Dike Nicoll, former local police sergeant, is now, we hear, an Army sergeant in an automatic weapons battalion at Camp Stewart, Ga.

Walter Markey, Flc, is now at a SeaBee camp at Quoddy Village, Maine.

Howard Olds is with an anti-aircraft outfit down at Fort Eustis, Va., nowadays. John Olds, we hear, is somewhere overseas.

Harold Downs is out at Camp Stoneman, Calif.

A. C. Arthur Edmunds is training at Whiting Field, Fla.

Harold Eastwood, popular local mailman, left Friday for duty with the SeaBees. The Eastwoods are right in this war, as Harold has a brother, First Lt. Arthur Eastwood, in California with the AAF, and a nephew, Arthur Jr., with the SeaBees in Northern Ireland.

Included in Ballardvale's fine service record in this war are two Davis boys from Andover street. Leo Davis is serving at sea with the Navy, while Pvt. Frank Davis is stationed at the basic flying training school at Walnut Ridge, Ark.

Bill Marudzinski, a three-year veteran of the Marine Corps who enlisted at Lawrence in 1940, is now fighting overseas with a Marine special weapons group. Dan Marudzinski, another Marine, has the rating of corporal in the Marine air force at Cherry Point, No. Car.

Doug Dunbar, formerly of P.A.'s faculty, is now associated with the Navy V-12 program at Hobart college in Geneva, N. Y.

Les Barrett of 275 North Main street, Shawsheen, now a yeoman 1c in the Navy, is working in the Port Director's office in Portland, Maine.

George Ballantyne of Elm court, a native of Scotland, is now a staff sergeant in the medical corps, and is at the station hospital at Fort Knox, Ky.

To the ever-growing list of local SeaBees add the name of Fred Maxwell of Arundel street, a ship-fitter 2c at Fort Pierce, Fla.

Al Towne, S2c, is now aboard an aircraft carrier in Atlantic waters.

Charlie Meikle of 275 North Main street, Shawsheen, a SeaBee, is in the nation's capital for the present.

John Petrie, erstwhile Phillips teacher, is now serving as an ensign aboard a Coast Guard vessel out of New York.

Cpl. Milo Trafton, who used to live on Stevens street, is stationed now at the Army air base at Lincoln, Neb.

Bill Buchan, BM 1c, has returned to this country after three years in the Pacific. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor, on a battleship, at the time of the Jap attack, and his ship was one of those sunk... Bill is now at Miami, Fla., and, as he hasn't been for four years, his family is hoping he'll get a chance to come to Andover. However, bosun's mates are at a premium where he is, and he expects to go to sea again soon.

We don't know precisely where 1st Lt. Bill Cargill, pictured above, is now, but from where he is, he can see Mt. Vesuvius smoking all day and flaming all night — it's a really beautiful sight, he says. He writes his family, the William Cargills of 44 Stevens street, that he has a "swell home" now, a two-and-a-half-ton truck. The truck is fitted out with four bunks, electric lights and all the conveniences of home; Bill lives in it with three other officers.

Don McLaughlan of Shawsheen road is reported doing well in Navy preflight at Chapel Hill, No. Car.

Second Looie Dick Sullivan, son of the James J. Sullivans of 76 Haverhill street, is learning to fly the big Flying Fortresses at the Army air field in Roswell, N. M., where he's a student in the four-engine pilot transition school. He got his pilot wings recently on graduating from West Point.

Herbie Muller, one of Punchard's better quarterbacks in the past decade or so, has been assigned to the district Coast Guard office of the Seventh Naval District, at Miami, Florida.

Sgt. George Keith, formerly with a coast artillery barrage balloon outfit at San Diego, Calif., has been transferred to Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Congrats to Abbo Batchelder of Argilla road, whose wife has just received word of his promotion to chief petty officer. His present station is unknown.

Sgt. Kerr Sparks, ski troop instructor who has been in the Aleutians for some time and is now assigned to Camp Hale, Colo., is enjoying a 21-day furlough at his home on Lincoln street.

Fred Butler, Jr., son of County Commissioner and Mrs. Butler of 111 Main street, has completed about a third of his pilot training at Union City, Tenn., and will soon report to an Air Corps basic flying school at Newport, Ark., for intermediate training. Fred, formerly a student at P. A. and Vermont academy, received pre-flight training at the Army college training detachment in Buffalo, N. Y., after being accepted as a flying cadet at Maxwell Field.

GOLF PRO DECLARED DEAD

Missing in action since last June, John Shimkonis, former Andover Country club golf pro, has officially been declared dead by the Navy department, which has so notified his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Shimkonis of 114 Park street, Lawrence.

Shimkonis, 38, was a seaman first-class in the Navy, and is believed to have been a member of a gun crew on a tanker sunk off the Southern Atlantic coast. He had become interested in golf as a caddie, when a boy, and was a popular figure in golfing circles for many years. A brother, Sgt. Patrick E. Shimkonis, is in the Army, stationed in Louisiana.

Cpl. Chuck Bryant, son of the Charles A. Bryants of South Main street, has completed his training in the AAF TTC at Chanute Field, Ill. While in school there, he was in the instrument specialist course.

Pvt. Joe Bourdelais, recently with a signal company at Camp Gordon, Gawga, has been transferred to Camp Campbell, Ky.

Pvt. Jim Skea is with an anti-aircraft battalion at Camp Stewart, Ga., nowadays.

Higus Asoian, now a sergeant, has been assigned to a bombing squadron at Ardmore, Okla.

Pvt. Jimmy O'Hagan has landed in North Africa. Jimmy was formerly at Camp Meade, Md., and his brother Pete is still at Camp Robinson, Arkansas... Also overseas, we hear, is Pfc Barker Higgins, former B. P. W. employee, now connected with a medical battalion.

Eddie Lindholm of Chestnut street, now an Army aviation cadet, is training at Ellington Field, Tex.

Pvt. Al Groleau of Shawsheen is overseas with an anti-aircraft artillery outfit.

Out at Ohio university you'll find Bill Eastham, son of the James S. Easthams of 64 Bartlet street, now in a service unit in the Army's specialized training program reserve.

ASTP reservists have a double job in keeping up to the academic standards set by the university as well as their army duties. Bobby Burnham, former Andover Town team pitching ace, now a fireman 2c in the Navy, was home recently for his first furlough after four months of boot training. Bob is a great advertiser for the Navy, not, indeed, because George Selkirk of the N. Y. Yankees is his rifle range instructor, and Bob Burke, Washington pitcher in '38, is his athletic director; not because Bobby has won three out of three heavy-weight boxing matches, or because he is a regular on the camp basketball team — no, he likes the Navy because it's the Navy.

Sarge Ray Keating is now with an infantry outfit at some APO routed through Nashville, Tenn.

Harold A. "Mickey" Walker, son of the Walter Walkers of 440 North Main street, has completed officer's training and been commissioned a second loolie in the Marine Corps Reserve. He's a graduate of Bates college, where he rolled up an impressive athletic record.

Out at Carter's Corner, Emanuel Gaudette has constructed a metal plaque to replace the original service flag there. It will be used only during the winter; the flag itself which the women of the Corner go together to make some months ago will fly in suitable weather.

Army Lieutenant Writes Poem on Armistice Day

Commemorating the 25th Armistice day, a young army lieutenant, a former Andover boy, has written a poem which calls to mind John McCrae's famous "In Flanders Fields" of another war. The young lieutenant is Theodore Leonard Dodge, Jr., son of Margaret Andover and the late Theodore L. Dodge. He was born in Andover, and formerly resided at 16 High street. He graduated from Brown in 1941, and did Y.M.C.A. work before entering service.

ARMISTICE DAY

Today we heard the bugles blow Beside white crosses row on row Where lie in peaceful sleep our honored dead.

Short years ago they fought and died

To gain a peace; thrust wars aside To make the world more humane and more kind.

They bore aloft the torch of peace Which, from their feeble dying hands,

We seized that we might bear it on But, trading words for noble deed We watch its flame sink low and die,

Until today we're caught once more in war.

Again the young men, you and I, Take up the torch and hold it high We kindle anew the flame; the hope for Peace.

We know our fight has just begun; But every battle fought and won Speeds on the day when wars shall cease.

Today our mourning bugles blow Beside new crosses row on row, Where our own comrades, these, honored dead.

In this year's battles fought and bled,

They died that we who live might know

This time we must not fail our dead

Andover Placed 31st on Accident Prevention List

Accident statistics compiled by the Massachusetts Safety Council place Andover in 31st place in the 10,000 to 25,000 population group for the first nine months of 1943.
Andover has an accident percentage rate of 250.34 per 100,000 population.

The report lists Andover as having had one fatality, 36 injuries and 21 collisions during the nine-month period. The one fatality was a Camp Andover soldier killed in an accident on the camp property, and strictly speaking, should not have been included in Andover statistics.

FINE DAIRY RECORD

A registered Holstein-Friesian cow in the dairy herd owned by John Bolten of Andover has recently completed a 365-day production record of 762 pounds of butterfat and 23,676 pounds of milk, the Holstein-Friesian Association of America announces. This is more than 4 times the production of the average dairy cow in the nation.

Testing of the cow, named Walk-up Ormsby Glory, was supervised by the Massachusetts State college in cooperation with the Holstein-Friesian Association.

Punchard

North Andover, remains on the Punchard docket for November 20.

Last Saturday's 21 to 0 win over
Tewksbury was the best showing Punchard has made against any opponent this season; the local eleven displayed plenty of punch and skill in scoring in all periods but the third. George Craig became the star of the game in intercepting a Tewksbury pass and galloping 60 yards to a touchdown. Al Johnson and Fred McCollum scored the other touchdowns, and McCollum and Murnane made the points after.

Coach Fred Reil announced yesterday that he will probably start the following against Methuen tomorrow: Fred Anderson, lg; Durwood Moody, lt; Emanuel Gigis, lg;
Bill Morgan, c; Al Johnson, rg;
John McGrath, rt; Bill Monroe, re;
George Craig, qb; Fred McCollum, lhb; George Collins, rhb; Bill
West, fb.

Only one member of the starting lineup, George Craig, played at all last year; the only other veteran,
Henry Babicki, is out for the season, having been seriously injured in an automobile accident last Thursday afternoon at High and Haverhill streets.

Two other Punchard boys may also be sidelined by injuries, Chester Jenkins, regular right end, and Bill West, who has been named, however, to answer the kickoff in the fullback slot.

Methuen will probably outweigh Punchard considerably, and the Methuen eleven is far better stocked with veteran players than Punch-ard is. It has lost only two games, to Johnson and Hudson.

Officials for the game, which starts at 2:30, have been announced by Faculty Manager William L. Mc-Donald as follows: James Liston, referee; Raymond Kennedy, ump-pire; and Joseph Orpen, head linesman.

War Work Means Dirty Clothes

The two go together, and if your

in a war plant, there's an added burden on "the little woman" who has the job of keeping his clothes clean.

It's most unwise for any house-when there are so many other use-when the Andover Steam takes

Probably no musical group has ever awakened a more popular response from Andover residents than the Don Cossacks, led by Serge Jaroff, who have given several overwhelmingly successful concerts here in the past.

The Cossacks are coming here again this year, complete with colorful Russian costumes and a repertoire of stirring Russian songs and dances, and Mr. Jaroff will, as before, conduct the noted chorus.

They will be here a week from Friday night, November 19, in George Washington hall. Tickets at $1.10, $1.65 and $2.20 are now on sale at Mrs. Cannon's office in the hall.

Committees Appointed for "Round the World" Fair

The following committees have been appointed for the "Round the World" Fair, to be held November 20 at the Baptist church:

Dennison, G. MacMackin. American Indian (World-Wide Guild)—candy, peanuts, table favors: B. Hudon, V. Barnet, E. McLay. Burma—cosmetics: Mrs. R. Norton.

A bean supper will be served from 5 to 7. Another event on the Baptist church calendar is a play, "The Mad Hatters", to be presented by the Christian Endeavor November 26. Tickets may be obtained from any C. E. member.

Shawsheen School Awarded Treasury Minute Man Flag

At an interesting program Tuesday morning honoring American Education Week, the new Minute Man flag recently presented the Shawsheen school by the Treasury department, for its 90 per cent participation in the war savings program, was formally dedicated.

After Miss Anne Harnedy, principal, had welcomed the large number of parents in attendance, Supt. Edward I. Erickson spoke briefly to the children and complimented them on their remarkable record. Miss Florence Bower, school dental hygienist, spoke to the students on care of the teeth.

An allegorical play, "A Day at the Shawsheen School", was presented with Virginia Foley of the sixth grade taking the principal role. The rest of the cast was made up of pupils representing all the grades. After the assembly program, the parents toured the classrooms in the building.

'Building Future With Books' Theme of Library Book Week

"Building the Future With Books" is the theme of this year's Book Week, which is being celebrated in the Memorial Hall library at its annual open house Sunday afternoon from 3:30 to 6:00 and during the week following. At 4 on Sunday afternoon a program of brief book talks will be given by members of the library staff and the board of trustees.

The library will have exhibits of new books, in both adult and children's branches. Local people may take this opportunity to make up their Christmas book lists for family and friends. Another featured exhibit will be the best sellers of the past five years.

Books which describe the everyday life of the peoples in the countries all over the world where Andover boys are stationed hold great interest for their families and friends. An exhibit of these books will be linked, possibly, with a display of curios and native art and handicraft sent back from the far corners of the earth by Andover men and women in the armed services. If any one has objects of interest, the library will be very glad to have them loaned for this display.

Refreshments will be served by a group of young people from St. Augustine's school and the Junior high school.

TO ADDRESS SERVICE CLUB

One of the most interesting addresses of the year should be given here November 18 at 6:15, when Commander Hugh P. Webster, U. S. N., design superintendent of the Charlestown Navy Yard, addresses the Andover Service club at the Andover Inn.

Commander Webster is not only an Annapolis graduate, but was selected to take various other Navy courses, and has had a large role in the Navy's shipbuilding as well as an extensive knowledge of the navies of our allies.

this enlisted man reflect the highest credit on himself and the air forces of the United States."

The citation with the oak leaf award reads somewhat the same except that it is "for exceptionally meritorious achievement while participating in five separate bomber combat missions."

Northey's last address in civilian life was at Norfolk, Va., where he moved from Andover some years ago. In Andover he lived in Shaw-sheen and out on Lowell street. His mother, Mrs. Hervey Northey, spends some time here each year with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Northey of Rocky Hill road.

Sgt. Northey has been in the Army since July, 1942, and has been based in England since August. He trained at Casper, Wyoming, and at Gulfport, Miss., before going overseas.

One of his exploits was service on a Flying Fortress which, on October 4, set out for Germany without a soul aboard. The story goes something like this:

On October 4, a Flying Fortress returned to England after a raid on Frankfurt. It was so badly battered that it could not be landed, and its ten crewmen had to bail out. But, before jumping, the pilot destroyed the instruments, headed the Fortress back towards Germany, and set the automatic controls. When last seen, the Fortress was headed back towards Germany, straight and level, at about 5,000 feet.

Safely at base, the crew has since been delighted by the idea of the flak and fighters the Germans must have sent up to get the "phantom ship," whose tank was believed full enough to get it deep into the heart of the Reich.

Before coming back to England, the bomber had been hit by flak, and the control cables were so badly shot away that the pilot had nothing but the rudder left with which to fly, and landing was impossible. Sgt. Northey has written home that the ship was "pecked at" by Me 109s and FW 190s for more than an hour, from Germany into Belgium, where the bomber picked up a P-47 escort.

An exhibit of ever-blooming violets and Christmas roses won a special prize for H. Rohrbach of Sunset Rock road, well-known landscape-gardener, at the Boston Flower show held recently at Horticultural Hall, Boston.

ABBOT ACADEMY NOTES

Saturday evening at 8:00 in Abbot Hall, Ripley P. Bullen, curator of the archaeological museum at Phillips academy, will talk to the school on anthropology and the Nazi conception of race superiority. The public is invited to attend.

Rev. Raymond Calkins, D.D., pastor emeritus of the First church in Cambridge, will speak at the vesper service Sunday evening.

Fall Field Day, which was scheduled for last Saturday, was postponed because of the heavy rains Friday night. On the first clear day the final events will be run off, and Field Day will be celebrated in its entirety, including tennis matches, archery tournament, hockey and basketball games. The school day lost in this way will be made up on November 27.

Last Sunday afternoon the Abbot faculty and a few Andover friends attended the opening of an exhibition of modern art centering about a painting—"The Head of Autumn"—by Pavel Tchelitchew recently acquired by the John Esther Gallery. The speaker of the occasion was Patrick Morgan, teacher of art at Phillips academy, who gave a talk on the various attitudes toward art in the past, and an interpretation of the purpose and methods of modern art. Mr. Morgan will speak at a later date to the Abbot students.

November 20, Bella Reine, choreographic actress, will give a recital in Davis Hall at 8:15, which will be open to the public. Miss Reine has a considerable European career behind her, having given performances in Paris, London, Amsterdam and Budapest, in which she won unusually enthusiastic acclaim on every hand. Her appearance in Andover is a rare opportunity of which it is hoped many friends and townspeople will take advantage.

State President To Speak To League of Women Voters

The regular monthly meeting of the League of Women Voters will be held at 3 p. m. next Tuesday afternoon at the John-Esther Gallery at Abbot academy. Mrs. Arthur M. Whittemore, president of the Massachusetts League, will speak on "Subsidies as a defense against inflation."

The board of the League will meet with Mrs. Whittemore before the meeting, at the home of Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin. All who can be present are asked to bring box lunches.

The third meeting of the study group on post-war peace plans will be held at the Memorial Hall library Friday afternoon at 2:30. The previous meetings have been very interesting, and it is hoped that many will be present Friday for the discussion of a vital and timely subject.

FAMILY'S WARTIME DIET... Use it wisely!

Even the last drop of milk in the bottle contains those vitamins, proteins, and minerals so essential in your diet, yet so difficult to obtain now that many other vital foods are either rationed or not on the market. For instance, one quart of Hood's Milk contains more than the daily supply of calcium for either an adult or a child.

Today, milk is not only protecting the health of those of us at home but also helping to keep our Armed Forces in fighting trim. To avoid the necessity of point-rationing milk, use every drop wisely . . . conserve your share!

HOOD'S MILK

Editorials

ARMISTICE DAY, 1943

"Here lie we dead because we did not choose
To shame the land from which we sprung.
Life is perhaps no great thing to lose,
But young men think it is,
And we are young."

We, who remember the casualty lists of the last war, walk with ghosts today. Besides the soldiers on our streets, we see those other lads whose lives were far too short, who loved life too greatly to be miserly with it when their country called.

In the Armistice Day pause this year, there will be new heroes to remember. Pearl Harbor, Bataan, Corregidor, Wake Island, Guadalcanal, North Africa, Sicily—before this article appears there will be as many other places all over the globe hallowed by those who could say as did A. E. Housman in the "Epitaph for the Fallen"—"Here lie we dead because we did not choose to shame the land from which we sprung."

They have given their all—and it was so much! Who knows what great things they might have accomplished, what great good might have come to the world if they had been allowed to live, what things they might have created, discovered, invented, taught!

We have to face the fact that before this war is over, thousands upon thousands of these, our finest, will have died. They will be Americans—maybe rich, or poor, maybe black or white, maybe Protestant or Catholic—but not German-American, Russian-American, Italian-American; not a "son of the American Revolution", not an immigrant—but just citizens of the United States—Americans who loved their country and its ideals of freedom and equality enough to offer their lives that these ideals of justice and democracy might not perish.

We, too, though we cannot fight, must not "shame the land from which we sprung." We have a duty as binding upon us as that of any soldier as long as this war lasts. Afterwards we have another duty, too—that of seeing to it that they did not die in vain, that the promises made in the Four Freedoms are at last fulfilled for all the people of all the earth, and that those who come after may live as free men, unafraid in a free world.

As a rule, rationing boards do not have much cause for merriment, but a letter recently received by the board out in Waupaca county, Wisconsin, got a few real guffaws from the otherwise harried rationers. The letter was originally printed in a Waupaca paper, and was turned over to us by a local man who happened to get a look at it. It goes like this:

Mr. Ration Board:

I am rite to ask you what kinda darned fellow you got on this board.

I am apply for renew A book and also B book and I get darned smart lawyer from Ogdensburg to make out my paper so I sure it made out rite. I send paper to you and wait 2 week and then come letter from you and says I am reject because A book sufficient. Well, whereinhell is A book. I no got.; No got tire record, too. You must have him.

You also say I no get B book cause I no work for living. I know I don't work, never did, never will. Why work, too hot. Also not dignify. You tell in letter if I want appeal case I come to Manawa Monday night. I come dam mad too, and only a couple dumb kluck from Waupaca and a smart lawyer from Iola is on job. I try tell my story, then say come back when real board from New London is on job. We no have anything to say. I should come back some other night. How can I with no A book, no B book, no tire inspection paper, no gas. And poor tires.

My nayber he get gas. He run all over hell picking up wild women. He got A book, B book and maybe C too. He tell me he get all gas he want.

If you wise guys on the board don't wake up and give me some books I raise hell...I take up with congressmen Murray, I know him, also senator Wiley, for a long time already. Since maybe 1915. I don't know Corn Wallace, or Jesse Jones or F.D.R. I bet I get gas though.

You can take your darned board and come to hell. Goodbye.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

On the far side of a knoll exposed to enemy guns in the Solomons, one of Pfc. Rondell Lyons' comrades was wounded. Marine Private Lyons brought him in. Another man was hit. Lyons brought him, too, to safety. The injured men were thirsty. But all canteens were empty, and the Japs had the only water hole covered. Lyons went out in the face of continuous Jap fire and brought back water for his comrades. For this he wears the Silver Star. He risked his life for his fellows. The least we can do is buy more War Bonds for them.

Punchard Alumni Sponsor Rally Tonight for Team

A rally honoring the Punchard football team, which has become quite a formidable eleven in the past few weeks, will be held Wednesday evening beginning at 7:30. Punchard fans will assemble then in front of the town house, and, after a few cheers and band selections, will march behind the Girls' Band to the Memorial auditorium for the rest of the program. If the weather is favorable, the auditorium portion of the program will be held on the steps.

There will be more cheers and the Punchard songs at the auditorium, and J. Everett Collins will lead community singing. Pep talks will be given by the coaches and players.

BALLARDVALE

Minstrel Success Assured

Tickets are now on sale, and going fast, for the "Hayshaker Minstrels," to be put on by the Friendly Guild November 18 and 19 in the community rooms. They may be had from a group of youngsters, from Guild members or at the door.

The ladies of the church are working hard to make their entertainment a first-class affair. Clyde Mears, an experienced minstrel, is coaching the cast, and there will be specialty numbers from outside town. There will be refreshments and dancing each evening.

Among the Servicemen

Young Bob Greenwood of the Navy had a week-end leave with his parents...A. C. Leslie Hadley is now stationed at George Field, Lawrenceville, Ill...The James Nicolls are entertaining Harold Warren, on leave from his duties with the British Navy...Earl Townsend of the Coast Guard was home for a brief visit Sunday.

Ely Culbertson Coming Here To Address November Club

Ely Culbertson, well-known bridge authority and author of a much-discussed peace plan, is coming to Andover next week to address the November club Monday evening at 8:15. It being the club's annual guest night, each member is entitled to bring a friend.

Mr. Culbertson will speak on "The World Federation Plan". He was born in Rumania in 1891, the son of an American engineer and the daughter of a Cossack chieftain. He has had a wonderful scientific education, and has a keen knowledge of human nature and a gift for organization. He has made notable contributions to the study of the psychology of the mass mind and to international politics. Though he is, perhaps, better known as an expert on the game of bridge, he has blueprinted his "system" for world peace as concretely as his "system" at cards.

New Church Youth Group Plans First Social Events

A new union church group, comprising the younger members of several local churches, held its first meeting at South church Sunday evening. A dance was planned for December 10 in the Free church vestry, and many other activities promise a busy season.

Constance McCollum is head of the dance committee, assisted by Spaulding Shaw, Constance Hathaway and Robert Hamilton. Other committees are: nominating, Richard Cargill, chairman; Marilyn Lindsay and Warren Knipe; publicity, Ruth Gregory, chairman; Claudia Nicoll and Peggy Shaw.

The next meeting will be held in the Free church. Refreshments will be served, and it is hoped that many new members will be on hand. Rev. Frederick B. Noss, Rev. Frank E. Dunn and Rev. John S. Moses are acting as advisors for the new group.

This Sober Town

Boston college is supposed to be playing "informal" football this year, and last Sunday's 64-0 victory over the Rome, N. Y., fliers strikes us as having been informal to the letter, if not downright brutal. The B. C. team may have changed a lot this year, but the scores aren't a heck of a lot different from last year's.

* * *

Dr. E. Porter Felt of the Bartlett Tree Research Laboratories in Stamford, Conn., has joined the ever-swelling ranks of the people we get mail from for no assignable reason.

Dr. Felt was the guy, you remember, who told us a couple of weeks ago that the Dutch elm disease was swarming into Massachusetts complete with LST's, tanks, bazookas, dive-bombers and what have you. This week, in a somewhat more bucolic mood, he informs us that "the European beech is a striking ornamental, well adapted to parks and lawn areas...Well grown beech trees command admiration."

He tells us that Westchester County has a European beech that has been growing for 75 years, and has a trunk diameter of five feet and a limb spread of 80 feet. "It is a large tree," says Dr. Felt succinctly. Well, we hate to differ, but we may be five feet in diameter ourselves by the time we reach 75.

There are certain peculiarities about the tree, of which Dr. Felt thinks that "the owner simply allowed the tree to grow to satisfy his curiosity as to the outcome." We hope he didn't get bored and go away somewhere (maybe to watch another tree) after the first 50 years.

Well, as Dr. Felt says, "mighty trees from acorns grow." He hasn't even got that right. We might put in a nasty crack here about nuts also being found in laboratories, but we won't.

Mr. T. A. Open House Has Large Attendance

The Central P. T. A. observed American Education Week with a successful open house in the Stowe and Jackson schools Monday evening and PUNCHARD and the Junior high school Tuesday evening.

Monday, more than 200 parents gathered at the Stowe school hall, where they were welcomed by Miss Catherine Barrett, principal, after which the parents met with teachers in the various classrooms.

Tuesday evening, a large number of parents assembled in the pupils' home rooms and followed a short schedule of a full day, each period being ten minutes long. During these periods, the teachers explained the nature of the courses they teach, and answered questions put by the parents.

At the close of the program, the parents assembled again in the Memorial auditorium for a showing of motion pictures. A book is to be awarded the Junior high school for having the largest number of parents in attendance.

SOLOIST AT CONCERT

Domenic Teoh, violinist, of Lawrence, who has served as concert master at the Opera Garden the last two summers, will appear Sunday evening at 8 as soloist with the Lawrence Alumni Symphony orchestra at the Oliver school hall, Lawrence. He is also concert master of the orchestra. Many of the Opera Garden Players will attend the performance.

FOOTBALL STAR INJURED

Henry Babicki, 18, one of two veterans on this year's PUNCHARD football team, is under treatment at the Lawrence General hospital for a questionable fracture of the skull, resulting from a two-car crash at Haverhill and High streets late Thursday afternoon. He is not on the danger list.

An automobile driven by the young football star, traveling south on High street, collided with one operated by Herbert Holt of South Main street, traveling west on Haverhill street. Both automobiles stopped against a nearby tree following the collision.

SEND GOODS TO RUSSIA

Last Friday the local Russian War Relief club packed a large number of articles, receipts from the recent lecture by Mme. Nila Magidoff, for shipment to Russia. Included were 364 bars of soap, 57 cans of canned goods, eleven cartons and four extra packages of cigarettes, and three cases containing clothing, cloth, buttons, thread, sewing kits, medical supplies, turkish towels, sweaters and stockings.

Mrs. Colver Stone and Mrs. Edith Kitchen were the packers.

Free Church Calendar

The Helping Hand society has had a successful sale of tickets for its bridge and whist, Mrs. Carrie Buchan, president, announced today. The affair is to be held this Friday night at 8, and a large gathering of card players is expected.

On Monday evening at 7:30 a committee to supervise the every-member canvass will meet and discuss plans for the next month. General Chairman Frank Buttrick states that a committee of some fifty men will be sought to do field work.

The main event of the next week is the annual harvest supper sponsored by the Women's Alliance. Next Wednesday at 6:00 a capacity crowd will sit down to a meal that is entirely home cooked. Tickets for the supper have been on sale during the past week.

WHY DOES THIS EMPTY ROOM POSTPONE THE AXIS' DOOM?

Because radio, lights and heater are on — when no one's there. It's a room of waste and waste won't win wars. But, you say, "Electricity isn't rationed . . . it's plentiful . . . and still cheap." Yes! But, saving it helps save manpower, fuel and transportation . . . helps hasten victory. That's why our Government asks everybody to conserve electricity. Of course, no one expects you to gamble good eyesight against bad light, to shelve appliances or silence radios. Go on using the electricity you really need — but don't, waste it.

Library Book Week Events November 14-20

The slogan, "Build the Future with Books," heralds in the 25th annual celebration of Book Week, observed throughout the United States November 14 to 20. The Young People's library of the Memorial Hall library will be festive with book exhibits — 1943 books, the 1942 Caldecott and Newberry prize winners and ever-favorite books will be on display. The books will not circulate during the week, but may be reserved to take out later.

Miniature figurines depicting a Chinese wedding procession, given to the Young People's library by Miss Edna A. Brown, will be viewed in the glass show case. Book marks will be distributed and every one is cordially invited.

Emily R. Poynter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace M. Poynter of 6 School street, was one of 113 freshmen who entered Pembroke college in Brown university last week under the wartime accelerated program. Miss Poynter came to Pembroke from Abbot academy, where she received an Honor A award.

DEATHS

Mrs. Elizabeth Carruth Prindle, 76, formerly of 7 Craigie circle, Cambridge, died Friday at the Andover Inn, where she had been residing for some time. She was the widow of Harry Brown Prindle. She was born in Newton, the daughter of William Ward and Mathilda Shelton Carruth, and had been ill over a period of two years.

The funeral was held Monday in Andover, and cremation took place at Mt. Auburn cemetery, Cambridge.

* * *

Harry W. Hayward, a widely-known and highly respected Andover resident, died suddenly Saturday evening. A more extended account of his death will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Hayward was employed by the Lawrence Gas and Electric company, and had been a call fireman with the local department since 1935.

He enlisted in the U. S. Army February 26, 1918, and served overseas for nearly a year, taking part in the St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne battles. He took an active role in American Legion affairs.

Surviving are his wife, Myrtle (Dumont) Hayward; two sons, Pvt. Ralph Hayward, U. S. A., of Camp Blanding, Fla., and Charles of Andover; a daughter, Cynthia, of Andover; a sister, Mrs. Joseph Dumont, of Delaney, N. Y.; and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the Lundgren funeral home, Rev. Frederick B. Noss officiating. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

Those who knew the late Mrs. Prindle count it to have been a rich privilege and, comforted though they are that her long infirmity has ended, regard her passing from them as a heavy personal loss. She will be enshrined in their memory.

She had a keen mind and did much deep thinking. She had a fine taste for the best in literature. Her conversation was always enlivened with a pleasant humor. Above all, she had a deep religious spirit and faith, which were strengthened by many experiences in her life. To her, spiritual things were the great realities. They represented for her the highest values. She lived for them and by their inspiration and power.

Ill health, which she bore with remarkable patience, kept her from an active social life but she was always thinking of others, entered into the sufferings and sorrows of others, and did many "nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love".

Good Response on Gifts

The Servicemen's Fund association has received its first word from a serviceman abroad acknowledging a Christmas package. The message came from Pfc Bill Miller, somewhere in England. The association has already received replies from more than 400 boys in this country, however, concerning the Christmas gifts, which were evidently much appreciated. Since a Kate Smith broadcast yesterday said that the first of the "Christmas boats" had just arrived in North Africa, the association is hoping that a few dozen of its gifts may now be in the hands of the local boys there.

V. F. W. Post Donates To Camp Hospital Room

Andover post 2128, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at its regular meeting Monday evening, voted to donate $25.00 towards the furnishing of a recreation room in the Framingham military hospital. The room is to be used by wounded and convalescent soldiers to while away the tedium of hospital life. The room will be known as the "Andover Room."

Plans were also completed for the annual turkey whist party to be held November 18 at 8:00 in the post rooms. The Armistice Day celebration will be held in the post rooms this year as in the past.

A theatre party is being planned by members of the post for the near future. Commander William Snyder, Harold Cates and John Erving comprise the committee in charge.

Townies To Get Jackets At Banquet in December

Jackets are expected to arrive in Andover late this month for the boys who played for the Andover Town baseball team this summer. Sports jackets, like everything else, have been scarce this year, and were unobtainable till now.

The jackets will probably be presented at a testimonial banquet for the team, to be held the first part of December. A program tentatively lined up would include the showing of the National League motion picture and pictures of the Alabama-Boston College bowl game. Arrangements are also being made to have a leading sportswriter and a prominent big league baseball star as speakers.

CIVILIAN AWARDS

Testimony to the effect that the stimulus of the Army-Navy "E" and the Maritime "M" production awards has been very great constantly is accumulating. Both management and labor on the home front have been helped to even greater efforts and results by these recognitions of unselfish devotion to the great task of turning out the vital materials of war. Now both directors and workers in a category other than those previously recognized are to receive an achievement award for work well done. These are the seasonal processors of food. The fact that they are not year-round operators makes them ineligible for Army-Navy "E" recognition. But if they meet the same high standards demanded for that badge of honor they are to receive the award of the War Food Administration's "A" flag. Qualifications considered in selection for the award will include ingenuity in the development of war food products, low absenteeism, cooperation in the various food purchase programs, accident prevention and the like.

A number of vital factors on the home front still lack recognition in the form of public awards. The power and utility companies, the communications companies, and even the enormously busy railroads do not fall within the technical requirements for existing awards. There would seem to be little reason why the powerful incentive which existing awards for merit have supplied should not be extended to such fundamentally important elements as the electric light and power industry, which has shown an increase of 73 per cent in its kilowatt hour output since 1939; or the telephone industry, which last year handled 93 per cent more long-distance calls than in 1939; or the American railroads, which in 1942 increased the ton miles moved as compared with 1939 by 92 per cent and the passenger miles by 135 per cent in the same period. The service industries have done and are doing an outstanding war job. They, too, deserve an accolade.
